CUTS WOOD, NOT CORNERS

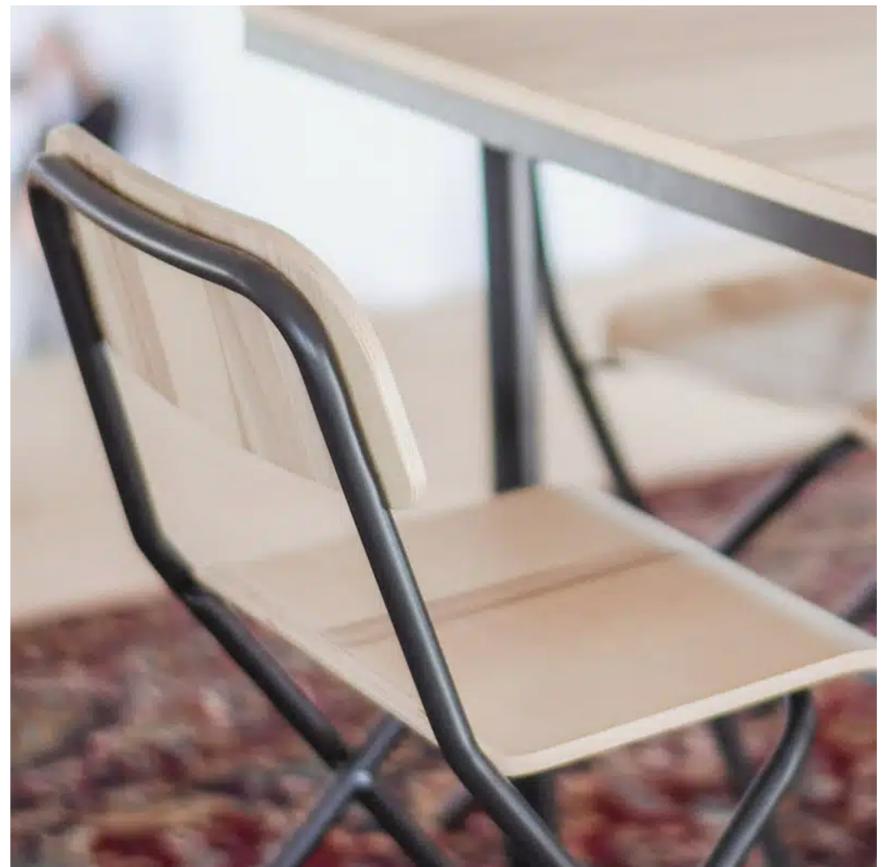

Cutting Edge Carpentry and Renovations is a one-stop resource for all your renovation needs. Owned and operated by Paul Robertson, the company has had the privilege of transforming many homes and making many people very happy.

"I love working with my hands, and creating", says Paul. "Seeing the faces of homeowners when everything is completed will never cease to make my day."

Starting in 1990, Cutting Edge Carpentry and Renovations has worked on many homes, from decks and fences, to complete custom home building.

Based out of Whitby, Ontario, Cutting Edge Carpentry and Renovations is a small company that has seen big results. Word of mouth is what drives the business. "I want to ensure every customer is not only happy from start to finish, but also compelled to tell their neighbours and friends about me because of the results. So I work hard. I don't cut corners. I do all I can to deliver a product of exceptional quality."

To ensure balance in life, Paul also gives back. He has participated in building projects in Montserrat, Brazil, and Jamaica. Most recently Paul will be going to Cuba for the 3rd time in as many years, to lead and oversee the construction projects for Mission: Cuba, for The Salvation Army.
